Rolling Hills Riders Vie for Powers Award

A ten-event horse show, free to the public, will be presented Sunday, April 27, in the Portuguese Bend Riding Club show ring on Narcissa Drive, Glen Young, show manager, announced today. The show, which opens the Portuguese Bend Riding Club's spring and summer season, will feature competition between children from five to 16 years of age. Events will include English and Western horsemanship, pair classes, trail and pleasure horses and jumpers. The show, a gymkana, will start at 11 a.m. and conclude about 4:30 p.m.

Dance Features Big Orchestra

An orchestra, floor show, and refreshments are on the agenda for the Community Dance being sponsored by North Torrance Unified Taxpayers tomorrow evening.

The free dance is to be held at McDasters Hall, 174th and Yukon at 8:00 p.m., according to officials of the group.

Everyone is invited, spokesmen said, and a big turn-out is expected.

Small Citizen Set Featured In New Store

Kettler Knolls residents will enjoy the newest addition to their shopping district this weekend, when the Kettler Knolls Children and Gift Shop holds their grand opening. The store is located on Western avenue, Torrance. In the Kettler Knolls shopping center.

Ellen M. Wright, owner announced that as a special get acquainted offer, a one dollar refund will be made on every five dollar purchase. "In other words," said Mrs. Wright, "we will give you a nice new one dollar bill for every five dollars you spend in the store. But we can make this offer for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday only, so take advantage of it while it lasts."

"Also" Mrs. Wright announced that "in addition to the refund, a special after Easter Clearance will be held on little girls dresses sizes from 6 mos. to 6x."

In her attractive line of merchandise, Mrs. Wright features toys, children's wear, notions, greeting cards, and other household items. (Advertisement).
